

Donor Privacy Policy

Mended Hearts relies on financial support from individual donors, corporations, foundations, and volunteers to fulfill our mission. Our commitment to “inspiring hope and improving the quality of life for heart patients and their families through ongoing peer-to-peer support” is the foundation of our relationship with our supporters. Mended Hearts is committed to respecting the privacy of our donors and has developed the following donor privacy policy.

What Information Do We Collect?

Mended Hearts collects and maintains the following donor information:

- Contact Information: name, organization (if applicable), address, phone number and email address
- History of involvement including volunteer roles, donations, etc.
- Information you wish to share: patient story, questions, comments, suggestions

This information is shared internally on a confidential, and need-to-know basis.

How Your Information is Used

Mended Hearts uses your information to complete a transaction, communicate with you, update you on Mended Hearts activities, and request support for our programs and services. Credit card numbers are used only for payment processing (membership dues, event registration, product orders, etc.) and donations. We do not retain credit card information after the transaction is complete.

No Sharing of Personal Information

Mended Hearts will not sell, rent or lease your personal information to other organizations. Use of donor information will be limited to the internal purposes of Mended Hearts and only to further the mission of Mended Hearts. Mended Hearts does not outsource our fundraising efforts; you will not be contacted on behalf of Mended Hearts by a third party.

Removing Your Name From Our Mailing List

Mended Hearts honors donor preferences with regard to the method and frequency of communication. Please contact us if you wish to be removed from our mailing list.
